When do you need your next WoF?

Your current Warrant of Fitness (WoF) expiry date stays the same

The new WoF rules apply when you get your next WoF. But there are some other changes worth noting:

New cars

First registered on or after 1 November 2026

WAS	NOW
First WoF after 3 years	First WoF after 4 years

4 to 7 years old

Registered on or after 1 November 2019

WAS	NOW
Annual WoF	WoF every 2 years

Over 7 to 26 years old

No change yet

WAS	NOW
Annual WoF	Annual WoF

Older than 26 years

First registered before 1 Jan 2000

WAS	NOW
WoF every 6 months	Annual WoF

Other changes to know:

ADAS checks

Vehicles with safety systems (ADAS) will have their warning lights checked during the WoF.

Higher fines

Driving with a WoF expired by more than 2 months can mean a $350 fine.

We'll remind you when your WoF is due so you don't have to worry.

Wheels and tyres

Non-compliant wheels and tyres can attract a fine of up to $350.

We recommend an annual tyre check with us to help keep you safe on the road.
